

Kolkata girl wins international drawing competition

Kolkata, Dec 11 (PTI) A 13-year-old girl from eastern Indian city Kolkata has won an international drawing competition in Italy for her entry which pays tribute to her teacher.

The watercolour painting "Teacher, close to the nature" by Neha Ray, who studies in standard eight at the South Point High School, was awarded the first prize among 8,832 drawings from all over the world.